CHRISTMAS

One icy December, 16 long centuries ago, three young women were very unhappy, because their father was too poor to provide dowries for them. A kindly saint named Nicholas filled three bags with gold and put them in the sisters' rooms. Soon they were happily married! That it a true story, of course; for history tells us that Saint Nick got such a glow of pleasure from his good deed that he decided to give up all the other duties of being a saint, and devote himself to making people happy with gifts.

He chose the birth date of the Man who gave to men the greatest gift of all, the gift so pure and precious that the groping touch of man sullies it—the Golden Rule. All year round Saint Nick works at gift-making in a factory hidden beneath white snow. It is always Christmas there, and so he never grows old or sad.

It is the magic he brings with his invisible sleigh on Christmas eve that brings mankind near to comprehension of the gift of gifts. For under the spell of this magic men and women and children give gifts, too—for the joy of giving. Men in war have been known to cease killing each other on Christmas Day. Stern judges soften in mercy toward the weak and vicious. People who never speak to each other through the year find themselves exchanging cheery greetings.

This is only for a little while. Soon Saint Nick is gone—and the Golden Rule becomes dim in consciousness, and men are selfish again. But for that day intolerance and hatred, which are made up of selfishness, cannot prevail. A man cannot hate while the selfless spirit of giving is within him.

The joy of all the world at Christmastime, the joy of men of all creeds, is of itself moving evidence that the weary heart of the world moves, if ever so slowly, toward acceptance of the gift of gifts—and with it banishment of war and injustice and fear from the earth. And so, to all—

A joyous Christmas!

Theatre Party Is Scheduled For Monday, Dec. 24

The big annual "Theatre Party" for school children of this vicinity, scheduled for Monday, December 24, promises to be a truly festive affair from start to finish.

Art Kloth, manager of the Daly City Theatre, has procured an impressive program of features and shorts, both exciting and amusing. Leading off with a showing of the ever-popular "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," the program will include a "Three Stooges" comedy riot, played strictly for laughs, a hilarious Hugh Herbert short, and other comedies, plus some wonderful cartoons.

Mrs. Anne Eason and Mrs. Maisie Boyle, the untiring and enthusiastic committeewomen in charge of the event, are in contact with Santa Claus who promises to appear in person especially for Daly City-Colma children, so that they can have an early pre-view of the Christmas fun in store for them.

There will be generous bags of candies to be distributed, and many other items of holiday frolic for the youngsters to enjoy.

This party is made possible through the unfailing generosity of J. W. Marchbanks, who for many years has made Christmas a wonderful memory for the young folk of the community.

Correction

In the account of the funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvio Perata last week, the baby's name was incorrectly spelled. It should have read Roy Louis Perata. The Record is glad to correct its error.

CHRISTMAS 1945

The magic of the Christmas season is with us once again—that magic which softens our cares and gives to life a renewed warmth and gentleness.

Around the globe the ageless carols of Christmas are sung once again. The story of the birth of the Prince of Peace is re-told. Again the star of Bethlehem sheds its wondrous light o'er the earth.

In our homes the cheery brightness of the Christmas tree and the deep red of holly wreaths are matched by the dancing light in happy eyes and the ruddy glow of flushed cheeks as eager little hands work swiftly to prepare for the arrival of the jolly old gentleman with the reindeer. In dark corners of the house the long-hidden toys wait patiently for the hour when they will be whisked from the gloom into the gaiety of the Christmas atmosphere.

The bubbling laughter and the spontaneous joy of our youngsters tell of their freedom from fear. But we should never forget that that freedom was bought with a price—a price paid by the fathers and brothers of many of them. Let us both work and pray that our nation will never again have to go to war to preserve that freedom.

And let us take time during this season to contemplate the spiritual significance of Christmas, to ponder the words and works of the Man of Galilee, to re-dedicate ourselves to making our lives better and to making this world a better place in which to live.

So doing, we shall help to establish the true brotherhood of man, and to share the greatest of all gifts—joy, peace and contentment. Then the cry "Merry Christmas" will take on its truer, deeper meaning within the hearts of men.

CRIME WAVE

The warning by head FBI man J. Edgar Hoover that the United States is heading into a postwar crime wave prompts the question: What can we do about it?

Mr. Hoover implied the answer when he pointed out that the greatest crime increase since 1939 has been among the 'teen agers and that this has been due largely to the failure of parents and communities to concern themselves sufficiently with the welfare of their youngsters.

Although juvenile crime is a much greater problem in large cities and although some of the smaller localities are comparatively free from it, every parent and every community should re-examine their attitude toward their youngsters to determine if they are doing all within their power to understand the problems confronting the rising generation and to do the utmost toward helping them enjoy happy, normal lives.

Mr. Hoover confirmed the oft-made declaration that there is no such thing as juvenile delinquency. "It should be termed adult crime," he said, referring to the indifference of some parents to their children's conduct.

The FBI chief does not believe that returned veterans will be a major factor in the postwar crime problem. Easy paroles for hardened criminals, he said, has contributed much to present lawlessness, and subversice elements are indirectly, if not directly, responsible for crime through their efforts to undermine our democratic institutions and respect of law.

But Mr. Hoover made it clear that, in his opinion, the crux of the matter lies with juvenile waywardness, and that it is up to parents in particular and citizens in general to meet the problems squarely.

SPEAK YOUR MIND

He is a brave soldier indeed who dares to tell the "brass hats"—in person—what he thinks of them. But one did—and the generals listened. The army private who appeared before the Senate Committee to voice his opposition to universal military training minced no words in declaring that the "Pentagon Boy Scouts" wanted it to pass because a large peacetime army would enable them to hold their high ranks. He contended that the entire universal training idea was the product of the "bemedaled fourflushers who pass out decorations with one hand and doctored reports on demobilization with the other." We don't know just how red certain official ears were after hearing this, but at least they know how one man feels toward universal training—and "brass hats."

WAR IN JAVA

The recent incident in which British troops burned every building to the ground in a Java village as a reprisal of the murder of 22 of their comrades captured by the Indonesians will hardly have the "salutary" effect on the radical native elements it was supposed to have. More than likely it will inflame them to still fiercer resistance. Reprisals never settle any score; they simply give rise to further counter reprisals.

Colma Open House For All Servicemen

On Saturday, December 22, there will be an "open house" party at the Colma Community Center, from 8 to 12 p. m., which all servicemen in the area are cordially invited to attend.

Directors of the center and ladies of the Colma Red Cross sewing room are acting as sponsors for the gala affair. All persons in Colma who have been connected with war activities are working for the success of the party, and are also requested to be present to enjoy the fun and meet the boys in uniform.

In charge of invitations are George Krehl and Fred Collins, who have endeavored to contact the boys through the draft board and other channels. These gentlemen wish it to be known that if any serviceman has not yet received an invitation, the ommission was not intentional and he is welcome to attend.

A delicious supper will be served at 10:30, and coffee and cake will be served all during the evening by the hostesses. There will be a good orchestra, and carols will be sung.

Road Life

Studies by the Public Roads administration of the various types of surfaces show that the average life of soil roads is from 5 to 14 years; gravel or stone 6 to 13 years; bituminous surface treated 11 to 21 years; mixed bituminous 14 to 22 years; bituminous concrete 13 to 20 years; portland cement concrete 17 to 24 years and brick or block 19 to 21 years.

Nonflammable Coating

Washable clothes, like shirts and overalls, may be dipped in a solution of nonflammable salts and water, and blankets or nonwashable clothes may be sprayed or brushed with the solution. One of the simplest solutions for home use is made by dissolving seven ounces of borax and three ounces of boric acid (dry) in two quarts of hot water. Stir until all the borax dissolves, and the water looks clear.

Buy Bonds For Christmas Gifts

"Make Victory Bonds your Christmas gifts."

This proposal came this week from Vincent I. Campagno, chairman o fthe San Francisco War Finance Committee, as local workers continued their efforts to bring this city over the top in the current drive by December 31.

"There can be no better Christmas gifts than Victory Bonds," Campagno said, "and those receiving them as gifts should feel that not only are they getting the best presents that money can buy but that besides they are helping their country to meet a crucial time. Buying bonds for Christmas gifts will help San Francisco go over the top in this last treasury drive. Let's do it."

Campagno stressed further that Christmas buying of Victory Bonds would give San Franciscans an opportunity of availing themselves of the treasury's announcement that all sales of series E, F and G bonds and series C tax notes up to and including December 31, would be credited to Victory loan quotas.

With still more than a week remaining for buying bonds before the end of the year, thousands of San Franciscans in the campaign are intensifying their efforts, determined to bring the city over the top in this last drive to meet the cost of returning the armed forces to their homes, of caring for the wounded, and of rehabilitating thousands who left civilian life to answer their country's call.

Much activity continues in the districts of San Francisco where committees of neighborhood folk are doing a wel-organized job in bond selling on a block to block basis. Their help is needed to the last, is has been pointed out.

Vets Returning To Bank America Jobs

Bank of America has already put 1000 of its own war veteran staff members back to work since their return from military service, and in addition has made many new employments from the ranks of other veterans, according to L. M. Giannini, president of the bank.

Additions to the staff from both categories of veterans since V-J Day have exceeded 300 per month, he revealed, and this rate is expected to continue.

More than 3500 staff members of the Bank of America entered the armed forces, and the bank's personnel officers estimate from the present rate of return that at least 80 per cent will apply for reinstatement, a proportion which is far above the national average.

President Giannini emphasized that the growth of the bank during the war years, coupled with the continuing development of both California and the bank in the years immediately ahead, provided assurance of career opportunities for all the bank's own returning servicemen plus a large number of other young veterans to whom progressive banking appeals as a secure and promising profession.

Traffic Deaths May Increase Now

California's first peace-time holiday season in four years may be marred by the highest traffic death toll in history the Department of Motor Vehicles reported today.

Early reports received by the department's Bureau of Statistics indicate traffic deaths for December will exceed 400 and that the year's total will approach the record of 3615 established in 1941. Deaths for the first 11 months approximated 3200 and the number injured was close to 55,000.

Nationally, the picture is no brighter. Information received by the department from the National Safety Council shows that during the war period from December 7, 1941 to August 14, 1945, 94,000 persons lost their lives in traffic accidents in the United States and 3,300,000 were injured. In the same period army and navy casualties reported by the War Department were 261,608 killed and 651,911 wounded.

Stressing that the next six weeks will be the most hazardous in the year, Director Gordon H. Garland urged drivers to use extreme caution lest the holiday season of joy be turned into tragedy for many Californians.

The pedestrian hazard, he said, will be extremely high because of congestion in shopping districts. Shorter hours of daylight driving and unfavorable weather conditions also will be contributing factors.

"This is the victory holiday season we have long been dreaming about and many of our loved ones are back," Garland said. "Let's make it a safe season by driving carefully."

Girl Scout News For Troop Five

On November 27, Girl Scout Troop No. 5 celebrated its first anniversary. Attendance stars were received by Marianne Costello, Barbara Dale, Barbara Delucchi, Deanne Hale, Barbara Miller, Louise Newcomb, Joy Verdocia and Marellen Young.

Cake and ice cream were served to 22 of 24 members. The troop is quite proud of the achievements during their first year, under the guidance of their co-leaders, Mrs. C. Hale, Mrs. J. Heisman and Mrs. M. Pabst.

During the month of December tray favors were made at the meetings, and turned over to the Junior Red Cross for distribution in the various veteran's hospitals.

A Christmas party was held December 18, at the Peoria street Scout House where the girls entertained their mothers. A successful program was presented.

The "Opening Circle," with the entire troop repeating the "Scout's Promise," was followed by a recitation of "The Night Before Christmas," by Barbara Dale. Mary Alice Coverdale played "First Noel," as a violin solo.

A Christmas tableau was featured next with the following girls participating in the lovely scenes:

Marianne Costella, as "Mary"; Noreen Lack, "Joseph"; Barbara Delucchi, Joy Verdocia and Anita Holcomb, "Angels"; Barbara Miller, Marellen Young and Evelyn Madriago, portrayed the "Wisemen." "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem," "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear," and "Come All Ye Faithfull," traditional Christmas carols were sung as background music by the entire troop.

Helen and Janet Foster played "Silent Night," as a violin duet, followed by "A White Christmas," sung in duet by Betty Marsh and Carolyn Salagga.

Gifts were exchanged and refreshments served. All agreed that it was a Merry Christmas party indeed.

Troop 5 wishes to extend the Season's Greetings to all other Girl Scouts in Daly City.

Government Research

Before the war the government spent about 50 million dollars a year in research. During the war annual expenditures rose to more than 600 million dollars for research by the government mostly for military purposes by more than 40 agencies and bureaus in their own laboratories or through contracts with private organizations and educational institutions.

OFF THE BLOTTER

Isaac Henry Heagney, 90, of 154C Vista avenue, was found dead following a heart attack at 11 a. m. Tuesday, December 18. Officer Sundermann responded, and found Mr. Heagney lying on the floor by his bed. According to his son, Everett Heagney, the elderly gentleman had been under medical care for over a year for his heart ailment. The coroner's office was notified, and the body turned over to Lasswell's Mortuary.

Mrs. D. G. Haack, of 684 Arguello boulevard, San Francisco, reported to local police on December 16, that her automobile had been stolen from the parking area at Lake Merced Colf Club shortly after noon. The car was recovered on December 19, in Millbrae.

Two property damage auto accidents engaged the attention of local police shortly after 6 p. m. December 16. Automobiles driven by Encarnation Lundstrom, 2238 Poplar avenue, Palo Alto, and Italo J. Sargentini, 599 Naples street, San Francisco, were involved in the first incident which Officer Benassini investigated, at Mission and Market streets.

A little later, Officer Heim was called to the intersection of School and Mission streets, to look into a similar accident involving vehicles driven by Sidney N. Baney, 615 Font street, San Francisco, and Bastista A. Fontana, of Colma.

Alledged to have been intoxicated and using profane language, Ralph Bill, 583 Moscow street, was arrested shortly before midnight December 16, at the intersection of Mission and Hillcrest, by local police. He was booked for violation of Section 209, City Ordinances. Later released on $10 cash bail, to appear before Judge Sweeney, December 21.

George Mitchell, cook for Pete Pavlos' Cafe, was opening a bottle about 1 p. m. on the 16th, and cut his finger quite badly. Officer Beecher responded, and took the injured man to the Junipero Serra Hospital where first aid was administered. He then returned to his duties at the cafe.

Early in the evening on December 15, Mrs. Newsome of 127 Hillcrest drive called police requesting assistance in getting her child to a hospital for needed medical attention. Officer Heim responded and took mother and baby to Junipero Serra Hospital where the matter was taken care of by attending physicians, and later drove them back home.

Road Surfacing

While 83 per cent of the 563,520 miles of state-controlled highways were surfaced, only 73 per cent of the 304,000 miles of municipal streets and alleys and 49 per cent of the 1,928,000 miles of county and local roads have all-weather treatment. By surfacing is meant construction of concrete, asphalt and tar coating, gravel or stabilized earth.

Bulls Color Blind

Bulls do not get madder at a red than a blue cloth. As a matter of fact bulls are color blind. They become excited over any cloth waved before them, regardless of color.

Locusts Die Early

Mature 17-year locusts live only a few weeks, the female dying after her 400 to 600 eggs are laid. The full-grown insects eat little compared to the food intake of their grub years. Chief damage done by the locust is caused by the female—the wounding of young trees in the preparation of the egg nests. From 4 to 20 nests have been found in a single twig; 50 nests in a line have been cut in a single limb. The ragged slits cause twigs and branches to break, and leave unsightly scars. Young orchards, especially suffer.

Resistant Fabric

Thanks to scientists at the U. S. department of agriculture, a cotton fabric has been discovered that will neither mildew nor rot, and that has withstood burial in the ground for more than six months without noticeable loss of strength! The new material has the strength and appearance of ordinary cotton, plus the ability to resist the attack of rot-producting micro-organisms.

Fashion Frock of the Week

BLACK BEAUTY

Suits are indispensable in the wardrobe of every well-dressed woman. Tailored suits are excellent for the business girl. The trim, feminine lines of a well-tailored, well-groomed suit make the most of her figure and her good looks, and their simplicity is appropriate to her job. And a suit that can stay out after dark will take you dining and dancing.

The blouse of this smart restaurant suit by Fashion Frocks is fashioned of striped rayon faille, with a flirt of a peplum that flares out from the waist. The slim, plain - colored faille skirt plays a pretty "second fiddle" to the high-styled blouse.

Many a bride will be married in a suit when Johnny comes marching home, a suit that can do double duty for practical wear after the honeymoon.

Good Food Part of Christmas Tradition, So Why Not Give Homemade Jam and Jelly?

By BETTY BARCLAY

In every land all over the world Christmas is the time for celebration and good food is the tradition of the holiday season. Sweden has a unique and gay ceremony for the Yuletide called—"Julklapp." Small presents are wrapped in tremendous packages to be left at the door and the secret of the ceremony is to knock and run away before the giver's identity is discovered. Those who receive the gift must go through layer after layer of paper before finding a clue to the donor's name.

Whether or not you follow the Julklapp ceremony, you'll want to give homemade jams and jellies as gifts this year. Wrap each glass in gay holiday papers . . . tie with ribbon bows . . . and decorate with mistletoe and holly. Anything from a single jar to a whole assortment of flavors is sure to be welcomed, for everybody on that Christmas list loves good things to eat.

If your summery spreads are insufficient for the purpose, there's plenty of time in which to make fresh spreads from dried fruits, citrus fruits and fruit juices. Modern, short-boil recipes like these turn out perfect products every time:

Cranberry Jam

7 cups prepared fruit
3 cups sugar
3 cups light corn syrup
1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare fruit, add 4 cups water to about 3¼ pounds fully ripe cranberries. Bring to a boil and simmer, covered, 10 minutes. Sieve pulp to remove seeds if desired. (For Spiced Cranberry Jam, simmer with fruit ½ teaspoon ground cloves and 1 teaspoon cinnamon, or 1½ teaspoons of any desired combination of spices.

Measure sugar and corn syrup into dry bowl and set aside until needed. Measure prepared fruit into a 5- to 6-quart kettle, filling up last cup or fraction of cup with water if necessary. Place over hottest fire. Add powdered fruit pectin, mix well, and continue stirring until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once pour in sugar and syrup, stirring constantly. (To reduce foaming, ¼ teaspoon butter may be added.) Continue stirring, bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute.

Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 13 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Mint Jelly

½ to 1½ teaspoons spearmint extract
½ cup apple vinegar
3½ cups sugar
1¼ cups water
Green coloring
½ bottle fruit pectin

Measure sugar, vinegar and water into saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire. While mixture is coming to a boil, add coloring. Use coloring which fruit acids do not fade. As soon as mixture boils, add bottled fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard ½ minute.

Remove from fire, add spearmint extract and skim. Pour hot jelly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 5 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Several Local Men Discharged From Service

The following personnel from the Colma area has been honorably discharged from the United States Navy at the Naval Personnel Separation Center in Shoemaker, California:

John J. Fahey jr., SP1/c, 32 Edgeworth, Colma.

T/5 Bruff B. Robinson, of 6925 Mission street, Daly City, is on his way home.

Robinson is one of 1000 high-point army veterans whom the "Magic Carpet" is bringing back to the States aboard the USS Randall.

The USS Randall—one of more than 250 carrier, battleships, cruisers, and attack transports in the Navy's famed "Magic Carpet" fleet—left Okinawa, November 28, and is scheduled to arrive in Seattle, about December 13.

Passengers will go directly to the separation centers nearest their homes to complete the formalities of obtaining their discharges before returning to civilian life.

Joseph Verdi Cangelosi, gunners mate first class, 37, USNR, 141 Oliver street, Daly City, has been enjoying some pleasant duty on the destroyer Gridley for the past several months. Following a long and successful tour of combat duty in the Pacific, the Gridley was ordered to Mediterranean waters.

Gunner's Mate First Class Cangelosi is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cangelosi of Daly City.

In the Mediterranean, Gunner's Mate First Class Cangelosi saw famous World War II battle locations such as Naples, Marseille, and Palermo. He went ashore on France's famed Riviera, swimming and sight-seeing at such vacation resorts as Nice, Cannes, and Villefranche-Sur-Mer. Plenty of shore leave was also available in Algiers, Gibraltar, Oran, and Casablanca. Gunner Cangelosi says that he has many souvenirs from these exotic ports, and he also says, "I really learned to appreciate the good old U.S.A."

James J. Poket, coxswain, 6548 Mission street, Daly City, is getting ready to rejoin the ranks of civilians, together with thousands of others going through naval demobilization centers headed for the States.

At the staging center, the prospective dischargees are grouped according to what separation center they will report to for their final papers. They are placed aboard ships headed for the States as soon as shipping space is available.

Jelly Brush

A clean, new vegetable brush is the best agent for gathering the scum from jelly as it boils. The refuse clings easily to the brush and no jelly is lost. Of course, the brush should be washed frequently during the process.

Give them Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

By BETTY BARCLAY

Your G. I. boy or girl is home again and you are making the family meals pretty special. You've looked through your recipe files hunting for his or her favorite cake, pie or candy. You serve these favorites and when you see some particular food making a hit you repeat it.

Fresh fruits and vegetables are foods that appeal especially to these returned travelers, who found them missing on the coral islands of the Pacific and in icy Greenland.

Johnny, who had to be cajoled into eating his salad, now demands salads and lots of them. You'll be wise to see that he gets plenty of these mineral and vitamin-rich foods. Make these salads of crisp, uncooked greens and fresh ripe fruits. Give them a flavor-right dressing and again — serve them often.

Here are some recipe suggestions to help you!

Western Way Salad

Western Way salad is a different way of serving salad greens that will entice all the members of the family into taking their vitamins the salad way.

An uncooked egg, broken onto the salad greens, catches the cheese and blends it, during the tossing, with oil, into a smooth, flavorful coating for each salad leaf. The lemon juice adds a just-right tartness. The croutons give pleasing texture contrast.

The Hollywood custom of serving a salad to open the meal, gives the name, "Western Way." Make this salad just before meal is served or at the table. Once ingredients are assembled, it takes but a minute or two to mix. Be sure, however, to make garlic flavored oil several hours in advance. (Put 1 or 2 garlic buds in ½ cup olive oil.)

In a large salad bowl, place:
3 quarts crisp, chilled salad greens
6 tablespoons salad oil
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
Black pepper to taste — freshly ground, if possible
Salt to taste
¼ cup grated hard cheese, Parmesan type
¼ cup or more crumbled blue cheese
1 uncooked egg — break onto salad greens — don't beat it
3 lemons (about ½ cup juice)— squeeze or pour directly onto egg

Toss salad well. Then add:
1 pint crisp croutons (thoroughly toasted bread cubes), dipped in the olive oil, from which garlic has been removed.

Toss salad again lightly. Serve at once, while croutons are crisp. Serves 6.

Banana Nut Split Salad

Cover salad plate with crisp greens. Split a ripe banana lengthwise with a sharp knife and lay on greens. Peel and slice an orange. (The California winter navel oranges are seedless and best for slicing.) Put orange slices over banana. Serve with Peanut Dressing. Serves 1.

Peanut Salad Dressing

Beat together well equal parts of lemon juice, peanut butter and evaporated milk. Season to taste with sugar or honey and salt. Serve over fruit salads. Good also with lettuce or cabbage salad.

Army-Navy Santa Busy Boy This Year

San Francisco Port of Embarkation—Thousands of soldiers stationed at the San Francisco Port of Embarkation and its installations, or passing through the port, will spend their last Christmas in uniform this year. Plans now under way will make this Christmas for them the most memorable they have ever had.

Approximately 200,000 gifts have been provided by the camp and hospital council of the Bay Area Red Cross for servicemen in transit and for those who will be in hospitals this Christmas.

Many thousands of these gifts already have been placed aboard transports with troops going overseas, along with Christmas trees and decorations. Thus soldiers who will be on the high seas during the holiday will not be forgotten by Santa Claus.

Gifts also have been placed aboard transports leaving overseas ports with Pacific veterans aboard, and which will not arrive at the San Francisco Port of Embarkation by Christmas Day.

In addition, Port Special Services has provided for Christmas music for all outbound ships during the holidays.

The Red Cross also provided gifts for Pacific veterans who will be at the port's staging areas during the holidays awaiting transportation to the separation centers nearest their homes.

Homeward-bound troops arriving through the San Francisco Port of Embarkation will be stationed during the holidays at Camp Stoneman, Camp Knight, Fort McDowell and Camp Kohler, near Sacramento. At the latter camp, returned soldiers destined for transport to the East Coast by planes of the Army's "Transcon Project" are assembled.

Preparations also were under way to provide Yuletide hospitality in San Francisco for the overflow influx of soldiers returning from overseas as part of the army's "Operation Santa Claus." These soldiers will have to remain temporarily aboard ships because troop areas will be full of returnees whose departure have been delayed by lack of rail transportation.

Various civic agencies spearheaded by the Mayor's Citizen's Committee have joined in plans to provide entertainment, food and other requirements to an enjoyable — though brief — stay in San Francisco.

Ranking high in all port holiday preparations will be the superb Christmas dinner which will be served to troops in all port installations. The piece de resistance will be turkey with all the accessories needed for a traditional holiday feast.

It seems likely that the figure of 16½ tons of turkey served at the various port messes at Thanksgiving will be exceeded by several tons for the Christmas meal.

As Major General Homer M. Groninger, port commander, put it, "We want everyone at the port or going through the port to take away with them an unforgettable memory of this Christmas."

Meanwhile, each port installation is being decorated in traditional fashion. Bright colored lights and other adornments are going up on MacArthur avenue, the main thoroughfare through Fort Mason, port headquarters. A gigantic evergreen tree near the headquarters building will be aglow with Christmas lights.

Every installation has gone all-out on decorations. At Camp Stoneman post organizations are competing for prizes for the best decorating jobs. All mess halls will be in Christmas trim, inside and out, at all posts. A holiday wreath in colored lights adorns the entrance to Funston Field, and special decorations have been placed at the entrances to Fort Mason.

A heavily-laden Santa Claus will distribute gifts to children of military personnel stationed at Fort Mason, Fort McDowell, Camp Knight and Camp Stoneman at chapel parties on Saturday, December 22. This is an annual activity sponsored by the respectve post chaplains.

Holiday religious services began Wednesday, with the presentation of the "Messiah," at Camp Stoneman Chapel No. 2. On Sunday, "The Other Wise Man" will be presented there and on Thursday, December 27, a choir of 30 voices from the Taylor Memorial Methodist Church in Oakland will present a special musical program.

Christmas eve and Christmas day services, both Catholic and Protestant, will be held in all post chapels. At Fort Mason, Chaplain (Capt.) Henry T. Praed has prepared a special musical program for December 24, with well-known musicians from San Francisco participating.

Continuing an old custom, Fort Mason civilian and military carol singers will make the rounds of the various port headquarters offices Friday afternoon, December 21. The group is sponsored by the Civilian Employees Advisory Council.

A wide variety of entertainment also has been booked for troops during the holidays. Camp Stoneman, in particular, will provide amusement and recreation for the thousands of returned soldiers who will be there en route to their homes.

The Red Cross has arranged a series of events for patients at the various station hospitals, including movies, holidays music and entertainment, and gifts.

Christmas parties have been arranged by the officers' and enlisted men's clubs at the various posts. At Camp Knight, the Non-Commissioned Officers' Club will hold its Christmas party Saturday afternoon. The Fort Mason Officers' Club will have an open house on December 28, while a big dance for port enlisted personnel will be held in the Funston Field House under sponsorship of the 107th WAC Detachment, Fort Mason, on Saturday, December 29.

Contra Costa county — Striped bass fishing is fair. No bandtailed pigeons.

San Joaquin county — Striped bass fishing continues fair in the Mokelumne river.

San Mateo county—All lagoons are open and water clearing. A few fish are being taken in the Pescadero lagoon.

Monterey county — Steelhead have started running in the Big Sur and Carme rivers. The pigeon season has been the poorest ever known.

Fresno county—A good many salmon are below the Montara dam trying to spawn. They do not take to the ladder as they should.

Kern county — Wild pigeon hunting has been very good in this area. Lots of hunters have kept them flying.

Los Angeles county — Pigeons are plentiful in Cuddy valley and along Tesuya ridge. About four out of six hunters got limits on opening day. The sardine catch is heavy.

"Once More Dear Home . . ."

". . . I with rapture behold thee." What better words could be chosen to express the happiness of American servicemen who are home this Christmas than the opening lines of the Pilgrims' Chorus? With hundreds of thousands of veterans back in the States for the first peace-time Christmas since Pearl Harbor, the holiday season will be dedicated to them this year.

USO Clubs on the "mainland" and overseas, will offer a round of gayeties from Christmas Eve through New Year's Day. USO Overseas Clubs are serving around 3,000,000 men and women a month. This figure does not include the numbers now making USO Clubs in the Philippines, their homes-away-from-home. First reports from this area tell of some twenty-thousand a day in the former Army and Navy YMCA in Manila, which is the largest USO Club opened to date in that war-torn city.

Healthy Cows Give More Milk

Disease-free dairy herds are now paying big dividends to farmers according to a study of 10,500 dairies, by the American Veterinary Medical association. Production per day increased 40 per cent in 10 years, in those herds which were subjected to annual physical examination of all dairy cows and received the benefits of concurrent programs and recent advances in feeding and management which accompanied such examination.

Room Nine
The boys and girls of the sixth grade are reading and studying the earliest forms of air transportation. The Montgolfier Brothers experiment with warm air in a linen bag which raised in the air, interested the class.

Room Four
Two reels of a film entitled "Behind the Cup," were viewed by the pupils of room four. Scenes of coffee cultivation to the blending of coffee gave the pupils a good insight into the amount of labor required to produce a high grade of coffee.

Room Five
Last Monday the pupils of room five enjoyed the film "Our Flag Speaks." Interesting reports on the picture were later given by the students.

Room 12
The boys and girls of room 12 saw their completed scrapbook. The children who had a page in it read their explanation of the picture they had chosen.

Room Eight
In this room we are studying "Truck Gardening and Fruits," during our social science unit. We have seen two very interesting still films concerning the production and preserving of these important foods.

Room 14
The children of the low fourth are now studyiing the early Russian settlers along our coast.

Room 15
The low fifth and high fourth enjoyed hearing the CBS radio program, American School of the Air, featuring this week, "Symphonies in Miniature."

Crocker

Last week the students of the high fifth grade were shown lantern slides which gave them a good idea of how people of the Middle Atlantic States make their living.

Anita Holcomb of the low sixth visited her grandparents in Manteca last weekend.

This week the high sixth made maps of the world and traced the routes of Lief Ericson, Magellan and Drake who were famous men of the sea.

The seventh grade saw some still films on South American countries and customs. Joe Moore went duck hunting with his father. They went up to Maxwell.

Barbara Marsh expects to enter the hospital and undergo her many-time postponed tonsil operation.

Jefferson

The first grade is busily collecting pictures of pets for their new unit. They have discussed the selection of various pets and listened to stories about kindness to our pets. They were privileged to hear Miss Ihles from the Latham Foundation relate a story about an animal's faithfulness to his master.

The fifth grade has started a new topic dealing with textiles. They are currently studying rayon.

The sixth grade had an interesting visual instruction program relating the history of different boats and famous seamen. Films seen included "The Constitution," "Sir Francis Drake," and "Whaling."

"Student Prince" Starts Run At Curran Theatre

The vogue for good musical entertainment is never ending and so "The Student Prince" should enjoy its limited holiday engagement at the Curran Theatre, San Francisco, commencing Monday, December 24.

Dressed, directed and staged anew, this favorite operetta, which has proved itself by the test of time to be one of the finest of all light operas, as well as one of the most popular musical productions ever to be presented throughout the world, comes here bearing in its wake new acclaim and new successes.

"The Student Prince" has been eagerly and most enthusiastically welcomed wherever it has played during its present tour. Acted and sung by a splendid group of artists, one of the best casts it has ever had, and with a stunning singing chorus, Sigmund Romberg's musical classic is as joyful and entertaining in the re-telling as in the original version some years back.

The well-loved "Golden Days," "Serenade," "Deep in My Heart Dear," "Just We Two" and "Student Days," are a few of the great song hits in the marvelous Sigmund Romberg score. Many of these songs are assigned to the male chorus, one of the big features of this production of "The Student Prince."

Featured in the large and excellent cast are Alexander Gray as "Dr. Engel," Laurel Hurley as "Kathie," Detmar Poppen as "Lutz," Toby Durst as "Prince Karl Franz" and Nina Varela as the "Grand Duchess Anastasia."

Traffic Court Has Busy Week

It must be the Christmas rush about town, but Traffic Court this week had a somewhat more crowded calendar than usual.

Neglect of proper hill-hold technique in parking their cars brought the following parties before Judge Sweeney at the last regular session:

Frank W. Azevedo, P. Vuriani, H. C. Cloud, Don Giffin, L. Hall, J. Harris, A. McCrundle, J. R. Neal, A. W. Nethercutt, Joseph Ragni, Albert Richards, E. M. Rosenbaums, P. Campino, Palmira Curatto, M. Ziegler and Alvin Lucky, each paid fines of $1.00.

The following persons failed to observe signals: Arthur Alford, Edward C. Baumgarten, August Beefer, John Garcia, James Logan, Ray Messerschmidt, Guiseppe Pucinelli, Neal Sterrud, each paid fines of $2.50, while Walt Woodall was asked to part with $5 for his violation of the signal laws.

Cliff Cotrell's car staged a runaway, and cost him a fine of $5. Joseph Buckwald made a wrong turn and paid $2.50 for his error. Reckless driving on his part cost Harvey Cross $25.

Speeding took a financial toll from William McArthur to the extent of $15; Richard McLaughlin and Dr. Joseph Watts, $7.50; Charles Field and Ralph Montfort, each forefeited $5, and the same sum was paid by Guida Pierazzi, Jack Stein jr., and Clarence Haun, for the same offense.

Glenn Thomas Simmons anewered to the charge of disturbing the peace and was fined $50 which he paid.

Drying Laundry
Laundered articles should be hung up to dry by their heaviest and firmest part. Hang shirts by the tails, dresses by the seams, trousers by the waist, union suits by the shoulder. In hanging bath and guest towels, put one-third over the line with fancy part at bottom. When hanging sheets, put the large and small hems together and swing the large hem over the line. Having the small hem outside keeps clothespin marks from showing on the large hem. Grouping similar pieces together on the line saves time when removing them.

Court St. Mary's Initiation Plans

Court St. Mary's No. 1155, Catholic Daughters of America, will celebrate their first peacetime holiday since 1941 with an initiation.

Many members from other courts have expressed their desire to be present and are most cordially invited to attend, Thursday evening, December 20, at 8:30 o'clock, in Masonic Hall, 17 Hillcrest drive.

Arrangements for the social following are in progress with Mrs. Virginia Rengstorff presiding as chairman.

It is with apreciation and indebtedness to her valuable assistance so generously contributed that the members of the court recall the grand success of the Christmas party and movies of 1944.

Among other members on the committee are many of those who took an active part at the institution of the new Catholic Daughters Court recently organized in South San Francisco.

Vegetable Jacket
When you cook vegetables, leave them in nature's covering as long as you can. Sometimes you can cook the vegetable in its jacket. But if that is not practicable, make the peelings as thin as possible.

Prepare Salad Quickly
If you're planning on a raw salad or slaw, don't make it too long before serving time. The vitamin C in your foods gets away faster when peeled or cut. Prepare your salads the last minute before serving. On cooked vegetables, use as little water as possible. Add salt to the cooking water at the start, and keep the pan covered. Don't stir unless you have to and don't add soda when you cook greens. Most of all, don't overcook, watch the pot.

Vernon J. Back Discharged From Army November 30

Vernon J. (Bill) Back, son of Mrs. Marian Back of 781 Niantic avenue returned to Newport News, Virginia, on November 22, and on the following day was transferred to Camp Kilmer, New Jersey. From there, on November 27, he came to Camp Beale, Marysville, California, and received his honorable discharge from the army on November 30.

He entered the U. S. Army Transportation Corps on May 15, 1943, received his basic training at Camp Clairbourne, La., and after other periods of training in various camps was shipped overseas from Newport News on November 19, 1943.

His first stop was at the now famous North African city of adventure and intrigue, Casablanca, where he landed on November 27, 1943. On December 27, he disembarked again, this time in Naples harbor, Italy.

Bill is entitled to wear the European Theater ribbon, good conduct medal, and four Bronze Stars for participation in combat during the battles of Naples-Fogia, Rome-Arno, North Appinines, and the Poe Valley.

Since his discharge he has decided to take fullest advantage of the G.I. Bill of Rights by furtherinf his education. He will probably attend the University of California, to major in engineering.

Native Daughters To Play Santa Claus

Mrs. Ethel C. Enos, grand president of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, will journey south next week to the army's Brimington Hospital in Van Nuys, California, with some Christmas present for the double amputee and paralytic veterans patients there.

Ten war heroes, selected by the hospital, will receive the presents from Mrs. Enos—specially built collapsible wheel chairs, the kind that will transport the men comfortably for years to come. These chairs are personal gifts from the Native Daughters, through the San Francisco League for Service Men, and will go with them when they are finished with treatments and are ready to begin civilian life.

The wheel chair project, which the Native Daughters recently voted $500, was suggested by Mrs. Harry Curry, grand treasurer, whose wartime activities have been devoted to the morale-building work of the San Francisco league. Under the leadership of its founder, Mrs. Adolph B. Spreckels, and its executive vice president, Mrs. Henry S. Dippel, jr., the league has concentrated its good works, since V-J Day, to supplying needed articles for the rehabilitation of returned veterans in local hospitals. The first wheel chairs were purchased for double amputee veterans at the navy's Marc Island hospital early this fall, and now through the Native Daughters the benefits of the program will reach as far south as Van Nuys.

Stiffen Rayon

Perhaps you would like to add pertness to an old, limp rayon dress. Rayon does not take starch as does cotton. Repeated washing or cleaning removes the original sizing. The limpness may be relieved by using a gelatin dip. Use two tablespoons of plain, granulated gelatin and soak in a small amount of cold water to soften. Pour boiling water into the softened gelatin and stir until dissolved. Cool with cold water until it is easy to work in. Dip the cleanly washed and rinsed dress into this solution and squeeze between the hands. Roll in a towel until dry enough to iron. For more details, see your home demonstration agent.

Electronically sealed seams give the vari-colored balls greater strength, the material is tougher and makes for longer life, and the weight is under a quarter pound.

Colma District Sales Increasing

John Ferrari, chairman of the Victory Loan Drive for Colma district, reports that total sales today have reached $57,995.25. This leaves the sum of $4604.75 to be sold in order to reach the quota of $62,500 for that district.

Mrs. M. Pauline Brown, also of Colma, states that pupils of the Jefferson elementary school have purchased a total of $4022.50 worth of bonds and stamps in their school drive to date.

Grown-ups who believe in Santa Claus

Many a service man's mother, wife, or sweetheart will be gladdened by a Long Distance call on December 24 or 25. But those calls home from newly-returned service men will add a big load to holiday traffic on Long Distance lines. Even without them, it's so heavy we are hard-pressed to handle the business.

You can help a lot... by helping us keep the lines open for service men.

It's Time to Light the Tree Again!

A lighted Christmas tree is more than a glitter of tinsel or colorful decoration for holiday parties. It means many things to many people.

☆

To a small child his first Christmas tree is one of Life's great thrills. And through Life it comes to mean good things *  and rightly should. * To a young couple it provides a cozy, romantic glow, reflecting the glow in their hearts. * To the parent it is symbolic of unselfish sacrifice and the time of the year when Home is best.

☆

But wherever it shines * * * in the family living room, in a small apartment, in a store window or public square * * * the Christmas tree heralds the Christmas spirit.

☆

This year, after four war-darkened Christmases we can light up once again in a sincere hope that the peace and brotherhood of man we fought for can gain new and permanent meaning all over the world.

Junior Red Cross Is On The Job Now

Members of the Junior Red Cross, San Mateo County chapter, American Red Cross, are staying "on the job" and showing more interest than ever before in the schools throughout the county, as evidenced by the work they have accomplished for the Junior Red Cross Christmas program. The Girl Scouts have also been actively engaged in a number of instances.

Mrs. J. E. Phillips, vice chairman of the Junior Red Cross in the San Mateo county chapter, announces, "The number of gift boxes packed by the juniors this year is double those of last year; thousands of menu covers with every possible Christmas or marine design have been made this year for the navy's Christmas tables, whether for men hospitalized, on shipboard or at some distant base; hundreds of favors, joke books, etc., are on their way to the various hospitals for servicemen; the children are also sewing on 750 red and green tarletan bags to be filled with candy and nuts to be given to Dibble General Hospital patients under the Camp and Hospital Christmas program."

Schools ranging from one to 26 rooms are participating in the Junior Red Cross Christmas program throughout San Mateo county, including the Coastside. Through them cheer and comfort is brought to hundreds of servicemen stationed here and abroad on Christmas Day, who will be away from their home for the holiday season. San Mateo county can well be proud of the many school children who are members of Junior Red Cross and the fine work they are accomplishing throughout the year.

Raveling Pattern

Yarn in old knitwear is generally so matted from wear and washing that it ravels little, if any, when cut around a pattern. Loosly knit material can be saved from raveling by machine stitching close to the edge just before or after cutting. With stretchy fabric, such as rayon jersey, stitching along edges may aid in sewing—as when a fine hem is rolled—even though not needed to prevent raveling.

Frank's Union 76 Team Wins Again

With a score of 7 to 0 telling the story of their third victory in the league tournament, Frank's 76 baseball team is now assured of brand new uniforms next spring.

Holding Frank to his promise, early in the season, of real playing togs when they had won their third game, these young players turned the tables on the Baby Giants last Sunday at Portola Park.

Clipped Accent

PRIMA DONNA ACCESORIES in modern jewelry are the delicately wrought ensembles created by expert craftsmen to vie with priceless heirloom pieces. A matched set of yellow gold shells—earrings, clip and wristwatch cover—worn by CBS star Harriet ("Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet") Hilliard were designed by Haimoff of California. Sparkling at the base of each carved shell is a finely executed motif of diamonds and rubies embedded near the shell edge is a dainty pearl.

Merchant Marines Officer Training

A last minute opportunity was extended to merchant seamen and ex-navy men who have had 14 months of qualified sea time to enter the last class for merchant marine licensed officer training at the U. S. Maritime Service Licensed Officer School, Neptune Beach, Alameda, under the 14-month minimum requirements, it was announced today by Maritime Service officials at San Francisco.

According to the announcement, 150 additional candidates will be accepted for a special four-month class to start December 27.

After graduation of this last class it is expected that candidates for officer training at Alameda will be required to possess at least three years of sea time to qualify for training leading to licenses as third mates or third assistant engineers in the merchant marine.

The Maritime Service pay accepted candidates $126 a month and provides transportation to Alameda, as well as subsistence, quarters and uniforms. Graduates also receive commissions as ensigns.

Enrolling offices are located in San Francisco, California; Seattle, Washington, and Portland, Oregon.

New Income Tax Rates Effective January 1, 1946

The new and lower withholding rate as provided under the Revenue Act of 1945, will go into effect on all wages and salaries, subject to tax, paid on or after January 1, 1946, Acting Collector of Internal Revenue Paul V. Doyle said today in San Francisco.

Money earned in December 1945, and paid on or after January 1, 1946, will be subject to the lower withholding rate Doyle pointed out.

An example of the new rate as compared with the present withholding rate is shown below:

A single person working for a salary of $50 a week and claiming one exemption had $8.20 a week deducted for 1945 income tax payment; a single person working for a salary of $50 a week will have $6.80 a week deducted for income tax payment in 1946.

A married couple with one dependent and the husband working for a salary of $75 a week and claiming three exemptions in 1945 had $9.50 a week deducted from his salary for tax payment; a married couple with on dependent and the husband working for a salary of $75 a week and claiming three exemptions will have only $7.30 deducted from his weekly pay for income tax payment in 1946.

Pacific Telephone Expans Schedule

An expenditure of $400,000,000 for new construction over a five-year period was announced today by N. R. Powley, president of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and its subsidiaries, Southern California Telephone Company and Bell Telephone Company of Nevada. In releasing this unprecedented program, Mr. Powley stated:

"Having done their biggest and most important job throughout the war years, our companies, following V-J Day, turned to do the biggest and most important peacetime job in their histories. Expressing as it does a fundamental significance to every city, town, village and hamlet throughout the Pacific Coast, our postwar program is the largest we have ever undertaken for any similar period and it will necessarily require extraordinary amounts of new capital. The consummation of this program will result in increasing our present plant investment by almost 50 per cent—this means that our huge undertaking will bring our total plant investment throughout the Pacific Coast to an amount aggregating upwards of a billion dollars.

"Our immediate task in which real strides are being made is to render service to all who want it and to restore and to take to new heights our prewar service. In marching forward with the Pacific Coast, our program contemplates the restoration as rapidly as possible of the fundamental essentials, necessarily suspended in the war period, which our plant and service require. The execution and speed of the entire program is dependent, however, upon the flow of available manpower, materials, money and the level of business conditions.

"Among the many important phases of this program the following are illustrative, i.e., provision of plant for growth; replacement of plant to eliminate the temporary war expedients; improvement of customers' equipment; replacement of manual equipment by dial; extension and improvement of rural service so that thousands of additional farms will be adequately supplied with telephone service; two-way communication telephone service to connect motor vehicles, boats of all kinds and trains with any other telephone; strengthening toll and long distance network, including provision for television and further use of radio facilities; and many other projects to effect service improvements and extension of services, inclusive of provision of equipment for nation-wide operator dialing on toll and long distance calls and subscriber dialing of such calls, in areas where applicable.

"Stepping across the threshold of a new era of tremendous expansion as we did in the latter months of 1945, the year 1946, as we now visualize it, will record an all-time high expenditure of upwards of $90,000,000 for new construction, which, together with plant and materials reused, will result in gross plant additions for the year of well over $100,000,000. This expenditure is more than double the estimated 1945 gross plant additions of $50,000,000 and includes the following sizable sums for the major items of the program:

Land and buildings, $6,000,000; exchange central office equipment, $21,000,000; station apparatus, (inclusive of new telephones) $37,000,000; exchange lines, $22,000,000; toll equipment and lines, $12,000,000; general equipment, $4,000,000.

"In undertaking these huge expenditures in 1946, our activities cover a broad field of construction. Some of the highlights are: the completion of more than 70 building projects; the addition of more than 8,000,000,000 feet of wire in exchange cable; the addition of switching equipment for more than 270,000 new central office lines; the addition of more than 200,000 circuit miles of toll and long distance network, bringing this network to more than 1,800,000 miles — a five-fold increase since the pre-Pearl Harbor days. A major highlight of the program is the start in 1946 of a $5,00,000 construction project in California, between the Colorado river and Los Angeles, of our part of a nation-wide system of coaxial cables which will transmit television programs as

Jefferson Students Will Attend Operas

Students at Jefferson Union High School are making up two theatre parties for the coming season of the San Carlo Opera Company at the War Memorial Opera House. The operas selected are "Carmen" to be given January 16, and "Aida" on January 22. A total of 178 students have signed up for these performances.

The San Carlo, now on its 35th transcontinental tour, will be in the opera house from January 14 to 23, giving 11 performances of standard operas at popular prices.

Tickets for all performances are now on sale at the opera box office, City of Paris, San Francisco.

Pacific Telephone Schedules Expansion

well as telephone messages. Extension of this cable to the Northwest is a part of our subsequent postwar program.

"The many telephone improvements in service, technique and construction which have been developed during the war period will, from their practical application, expand the field of telephony, to the great benefit of the user, to an extent never before experienced. The telephone industry scintillates with new developments and improved manufacturing processes which will bring about continuous improvement of a service that will outstandingly contribute to the progress and the well-being of the entire Pacific Coast and of our great nation.

"To do all the things that we have in mind, will take men, materials and money. The program will offer employment opportunities to many people, not only in the manufacture, construction and installation of the added plant, but also in the maintenance and operation of a continuously improving and expanding service. We eagerly look forward to welcoming our more than 3500 employees now in the armed forces—thankful we are that more than 1900 are already back with us—to help us in our great undertaking—a dynamic and forward-looking program which can be accomplished through earnings that are sufficient to attract the tremendous sums of new capital needed."

COMING SOON!
NEW B. F. GOODRICH TIRE
THAT OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

THIS isn't a guess. A new kind of tire has been developed, and tests show that it outwears prewar passenger car tires.

It is made of a new kind of synthetic rubber developed by B. F. Goodrich—different from the ordinary synthetic rubber in general use by the tire industry. It helps the new tire run cooler—wear better.

The new tire has had more than 2,000 laboratory tests. Taxicab fleets, state police departments and the B. F. Goodrich test fleet have run it 16,800,000 test miles. Not only does it give longer tread wear than prewar tires, but it has more resistance to bruising or damage from accident.

A new, slightly different shaped tread—we call it the "road level" tread—is another feature that means longer wear. Engineers had wished for years to make a tread just slightly flatter. But that more desirable shape always set up strains in the tire body, or "carcass," as it is called. B. F. Goodrich developed an entirely new and stronger cotton cord, designed it into a 35% stronger carcass that stands all these strains and permits the use of the new flatter, longer-wearing tread.

The tread design is new. It is made up of hundreds of skid-resisting curves for quicker stops, surer starts—safer driving.

In a few weeks these new tires will begin to be produced in large volume, but supplies may be limited for quite a while. We have placed our order, and hope to have our shipment shortly. Watch for our announcement. And in the meantime, take good care of the tires you have—make them last until you can replace them with these new, better B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns.

Queenly Platina

IMPRESSIVE LEADER of natural fox mutations, platina, luxuriously manipulated in the boxy jacket worn by CBS actress Agnes ("Mayor of the Town") Moorehead bespeaks the skilled artistry of modern furriers. Cape sleeves with reverse border cuffs, scalloped edge at bottom of coat and soft shoulder treatment by designer William Baer of Los Angeles bring out the full beauty of the highly developed pelts.

Serving Vegetables

Serve vegetables as soon as they are cooked.

Bath Stains

To remove stains on bathtubs and sinks, moisten a good cleansing powder with a commercial bleaching agent. Rub this over the darkened surface and let stand until the stain is removed. Then wash off with water.

Sugar Syrup

Keep sugar syrup on hand for sweetening fruit drinks and iced tea. It goes further than plain sugar. To prepare, boil together for three to five minutes equal parts of sugar and water. Keep tightly covered in refrigerator.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

FROM BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN AND WOMEN IN OUR HOME TOWN

UNCLE SAM HAS TURNED ANOTHER PAGE . . . . A FRESH PAGE . . . . ONE UPON WHICH TO START RECORDING THE TIDE OF EVENTS IN 1946.

THIS YEAR, AS WE CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS, LET IT BE IN A HUMBLE YET JOYOUS, TRULY AMERICAN WAY. LET US SHOW THE REST OF THE WORLD THAT WE CAN BE THANKFUL FOR THE BLESSINGS PEACE BESTOWS.

Listen!

Hear that horn! Hear that excitement in the air, that laughter! It's Christmas, nieghbor, the most hopeful season in the year!

Imbued with this buoyant spirit of hope we express our wish for a genuine Merry Christmas to all our patrons and friends.

Dates To Remember

1941

December 7, 1941, is the date which will go down in history as the day when "all hell broke loose" and plunged our great nation and its many staunch allies into the bloodiest conflict of all time.

Daly City like all communities in the nation, felt the impact of war with a startling suddenness which first shocked and numbed all persons alike.

Then, with an alertness typical of any well-organized city, the various units of disaster and defense set-ups were called to action. Within two hours the Red Cross First Air Emergency stations were opened and in operation; ambulances made ready to roll on call; air raid and blackout officials present and accounted for; fire department until on alert, and police patrols on watch in the interests of security and public safety.

School and civic organization officials were fully informed as to the meaning of the situation and prepared to assign duties to proper persons. Everyone was ready, willing, and anxious to serve his nation's cause in whatever way was deemed best.

Before nightfall all branches of State and Military services knew that in Daly City all was secured against any possible enemy action.

A few minutes later another plane rammed into the hills north of town, killing pilot. In neither accident was there any report of civilian casualties. Christmas was in the air, with clubs lodges and churches announcing special program events. The City Honor Roll was ready to be set up in City Hall. At the Christmas Eve party in Servicemen's Center more than 200 boys in uniform received gifts and had a wonderful time in their "home away from home."

More surgical dressings were demanded as invasion rumors grew. 54,000 service men reported to have been guests at local Serviceman's Center during its first year. Civilian defense workers urged to return gas masks for use by armed forces.

June

Aircraft warning stations ordered decommissioned as enemy threats to coast diminished rapidly. Daly City accepted news of European invasion quietly and went about the business of furthering our victory by donating blood, buying bonds, etc. Fifth War Loan started with goal $175,000. Mayor Gaggero deplored method used in ousting Chief of Police Reardon from position.

December

1945

The world-shaking events of this year just past are too firmly engraved on the hearts and minds of all of us to make necessary a factual recapitulation at this time.

We are turning our thoughts and eyes to the Far East, where sporadic outbursts continue to disturb the international situation, and make uneasy the heads of nations.

That many of our boys still stationed in the Oriental "theater of war," with every possibility of return to their homeland a thing of the as yet distant future, is an inescapable factor to consider.

The eventual disposition of the Atomic Secret is a matter of the gravest seriousness confronting the entire world right now. There have been many "gags" written about atomic power and its uses in the postwar world . . . . editorials and articles on the subject have been published in every known language throughout the world to date . . . . committees of every kind are currently engaged in trying to solve the "mystery" of what to do with the "hottest" secret of the age.

This Christmas finds all of us with divided emotions . . . . that we are thankful for a partial peace at least, is undeniable; that we can face an uncertain future with typical American courage, resourcefullness, and the spirit of our pioneer forefathers, is indisputable. We are Americans . . . . the world today looks to us for unfailing leadership . . . . we dare not let our fellowmen down!

Democratic Meet At De Anza Hotel

The Eighth Congressional Democratic Committee, including members from San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz and San Benito counties, met at the De Anza Hotel in San Jose, on December 13.

Representatives from the four central committees were present. A general discussion on the Eighth Congressional Democratic nominees was held. Outstanding candidates being considered are C. H. McDonald, of Palo Alto, and Arthur Johnson of San Jose.

Daly City was represented by Frank Kent (by proxy) and Julius F. Castelan.

On January 9, another meeting is to be held at the same hotel to decide on the Democratic candidate for congressman from the eighth district.

Royal Neighbors Turkey Dinner

Vista Grande Camp No. 6035, Royal Neighbors of America, will hold their annual turkey dinner and Christmas gift exchange party on Friday, December 21, in Little Italy Hall.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. All members are invited to attend this jolly event.

"Notes Off the Cuff"

By Phil Smith

Thoughts while strolling around town: Daly City has donned gala dress for the holiday season. As I turned the corner up Wellington avenue off of Mission, the front yard of the City Hall caught my eye with its festive blaze of colored lights. Two beautiful living Christmas trees, elaborately decked with strings of twinkling bulbs, which extend through the shrubbery banked against the building, create a delightful scene indeed.

I dropped into the Byrne Radio Store for a chat with the nice folks who own and operate this progressive business, the other day. The fragrance of their window tree was mingled with that of a fresh paint and varnish job on the interior of the shop. The building, which was constructed some nine years ago, with its well-arranged display floor, invites patronage of all those interested in the newest in radios, stoves, and a variety of necessary household equipment. They are waiting now for additional supplies for the new year.

There is another Christmas window display in town which, impressive in its simplicity, expresses the truest meaning of Noel. The scene is that of an early American country church. Constructed entirely by hand, its creator is J. Kirby, 819 Hanover street, a veteran of World War I. Built of hand-hewn logs, interlocked and containing no nails, the miniature edifice is further enhanced by read stained glass windows.

Tiny pews are symetrically arranged on either side of a carpeted aisle leading to the altar before which stands the figure of a priest. Other little figures, representative of parishioners, are seen on the pathway to the entrance. The whole is softly lighted with tiny electric lamps, and overhead hangs a bell in the steeple.

This masterpiece of American craftsmanship represents many hours of painstaking work, and may be seen in the window of "Quickie's" next door to the Daly City theatre. Mr. Kirby is currently engaged in building a larger and more elaborate church which will be adorned with twin steeples.

And speaking of the theatre, I want to call to your attention one of the attractions billed for the weekend after Christmas. It is titled "A Star In The Night," and is being shown with "Rhapsody in Blue." The later picture is wonderfully interesting, and contains some truly inspiring musical sequences; but for real entertainment I suggest that you sit through "A Star In The Night." I won't spoil your enjoyment of the picture by giving away the plot, but can assure you that it is a story you will never forget.

I had a nice chat with Andrew Vireno, owner of the building in which the Servicemen's Center has been located during the war years. He told me of the great pleasure he derived from being able to make the property available to the boys in uniform on their visits in Daly City and vicinity.

In my personal opinion, Mr. Vireno is to be highly commended by the community for his generosity and helpfulness in a time of civic need.

Prior to coming to Daly City to work on the Record, my last "visit" of any duration in the San Francisco area was during the waterfront strikes in the early Thirties. I was up here on a special assignment and spent a great deal of time running madly around trying to figure out what was happening on the waterfront. Following that hectic period, I lived in Oakland for a time, and then moved down to "God's Country" . . . . the Lettuce Bowl Land of Salinas, city of Rodeos, cowboys, and cattle ranches. Finally after a series of government jobs, newspaper assignments, and just plain "loafin' around," I once more felt the urge to haunt a newspaper office in a small city close to San Francisco.

So, here I am, in Daly City . . . . a most interesting place, in many ways, I assure you. I've met some of the nicest people it has ever been my privilege to do business with, and I want to wish each and all of you the Merriest Christmas and Happiest New Year possible.
